

TEST YOUR SCHOOL BUS IQ

1. School bus transportation infrastructure is the largest system of ground transportation in the United States.

True                      False

2. There is approximately 75% of all K-12 students in the U.S. who daily ride yellow school buses to and from school.

True                      False

3. Over 200,000 public school buses are on the roads each school day in the United States.

True                      False

4. Most crash-test research suggests the two-point seat belt is safer than the present school bus seat design called "compartmentalization."

True                      False

5. There are more than 100 Federal, state, provincial, and local government agencies and industry associates involved with school transportation in the United States and Canada.

True                      False

6. Bus driver candidates are mandated by the federal government to submit to drug testing and criminal background checks.

True                      False

7. Funding for school transportation usually takes 10% of every dollar allocated for education.

True                      False

8. The U.S. Department of Transportation requires school buses manufactured after April 1, 1977 to be equipped with a metal cage designed to protect the fuel tank in a direct 30 mph collision by a two-ton vehicle.

True                      False

9. The passenger car is statistically a much safer vehicle to transport children in than the yellow school bus.

True                      False

10. The National Safety Council calls the school bus the safest form of ground transportation in the United States.

True                      False