Looking Toward the Future

On May 30, 2009 over 700 students from Pickerington High School Central and North accepted their diplomas and made a bold step toward the future. A new day that is sure to be as exciting, fruitful and liberating as this moment, right now.
The end of a school year is a time for reflection, celebration and planning. For educators, the summer season is filled with college courses, reading, designing projects and preparing for the future. We end one year and immediately begin planning for the next.

Here at Pickerington, we are learning from the past and planning for tomorrow. To serve our students better, we must look years, even decades into the future. We must prepare our children for a world that is constantly evolving.

With that in mind, we will continue to evaluate our instruction, the quality of courses, and the efficiencies in which we deliver our service to ensure that we are delivering the highest quality education.

While the new school year foretells that there is much work to be done, we also must celebrate the work that has been completed. Surely, the most highly visible evidence is the near completion of three new school buildings, which will open next school year. We are grateful to the community for the support of these new structures.

As you relax and recharge this summer, know that behind the scenes buildings are being polished, buses are being inspected, lessons are being planned and the children are being thought about intensely.

Have a wonderful summer – and take a minute to be inspired by the accomplishments of Pickerington’s staff and students.
