

Role of the School Nurse

School nurses work to promote student success because healthy students learn better. The main goal of the school nurse is to ensure the health and wellness of students and staff of the Pickerington Local School District. School nurses partner with students, parents, staff and healthcare providers to improve the health of the school community.

-The PLSD Nursing Team