

The forward slash

The Pickerington Schools forward slash not only represents the district's devotion to Educating For Tomorrow, but also represents its connection to innovative approaches and technology.

